

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

OFFICE—South side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

MONDAY, SEPT. 12, 1864.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat.
Whereas the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year—always in advance.

Important to News Dealers.

We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to can sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.

Persons can procure any number of papers at this office at the usual rate of three dollars per hundred; postage added, if by mail.

CITY NEWS.

We stepped into the rebel prison connected with Barracks No. 1 yesterday, and found about one hundred prisoners whiling away the dull hours of prison life in different ways—some reading religious works, some writing, some sleeping, washing, talking, &c.
A larger portion of them were imprisoned on the charge of being guerrillas, and were made up of persons from the fair-haired boy of fifteen to the aged gray-haired man. Among the number there were a good many from Butler and adjoining counties, who have been arrested by Federal scouting parties and sent to this city for imprisonment. We noticed one little boy, apparently not over fifteen years of age, who has been in the service for some time past, and who, no doubt, has been led into the rebel cause through the great way of deception. He has no father, and is now an almost entire stranger to the gentle influence of a mother's love. He seems perfectly reconciled to his situation in life. There are others, too, whose faces are yet fresh with the bloom of youth, who no doubt have been led astray by the leaders of gangs who have so frequently of late infested our State. We noticed among others Captain W. H. Davidson, who was for a long time connected with Col.
John H. McHenry's Kentucky regiment, but resigned when Col. McHenry did. He was captured on the 22d of August, with Adam Johnson and his men, at Castoe, Tennessee.
He has been with different parties since he left the Union service. The prisoners are comfortably situated, and all are satisfied with the treatment they receive from the officers in charge of the barracks.

BRUTALITY.—Yesterday a returned soldier drew much whiskey as he could well carry, and, wanting to fight something or somebody, deliberately walked into the private residence of a Mr. Moore, on Twelfth street, between Main and Market, and commenced a most brutal assault on Mr. Moore's wife, he not being at home. She was beaten in a most shameful manner, and perhaps would have been killed, had not her cries brought assistance. Sergeant Major Hays, with a squad of men, surrounded Steele, who showed fight, but about forty inches of human throat into him caused his surrender, and he was taken to Barracks No. 1 and locked up. There is a heavy penalty imposed upon those who still perpetrate such outrages to soldiers, and it should be carried out to the fullest extent of the law, so that no more such outrages as this may occur again in our city.

THE FAIR.—The fair for the benefit of the "Ursuline Chapel" will commence at Majestic Temple to-night. Every arrangement has been made, and this will no doubt be the fairest that has ever been given in our city.
Those who attend will not only have the satisfaction of having spent a pleasant time, but they will also be gratified with knowing that they have contributed to a noble purpose.

YESTERDAY.—Yesterday was a sublime and beautiful day. All the houses of worship were crowded —those that were not undergoing repair. We are glad to notice the progress of the Sunday schools in regard to the increase of the congregation of scholars, though a great many of them are in need of more teachers to instruct the youthful mind in the beauties of religion.

BARRACKS NO. 1.—The following is a list of the amount of business transacted at Barracks No. 1 yesterday: One hundred and one convalescents were sent to Nashville, eight to Owensboro, Ky., three convalescents and one prospective to New York. Ten convalescents were received from different points.

WEAR.—We learn that a female, living in the upper portion of the city, got tired of occupying a small space in this vale of tears, and yesterday concluded to drown herself. She wrote a sad and plaintive note, sent to the river, jumped in, came out again, and went to jail with an officer.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—We are glad to announce the engagement of the brilliant young actor, Mr. L. P. Barret, at the Louisville Theater. He will make his first appearance in the beautiful play of "Raesel," or the Rif's Bill.

LAST NIGHT.—The mail train jumped the track this side of Indianapolis. We were notified that the mail was lost. The train was expected to arrive last night. Nobody was hurt as far as we could learn.

MUTINY OUT.—The Louisville Legion will be mustered out of the service to-day by Major Siddle, if the roll of the war-worn veterans can be made out in time; if not, they will be mustered out to-morrow.

WEAR.—There was no business transacted at Colonel Farley's headquarters yesterday.
It being Sunday, the numerous officers, clerks, etc., spent the day in a becoming manner.

TO THOSE WHO ARE FOND OF THE GAME OF TELEGRAPH.—We would state that the experts telegraph at Waukesha have been restited in their style, and are now open.

WEAR.—We noticed several soldiers on the streets yesterday who were enjoying a quiet little drink. They were more than merry, but doing no harm.

THE FUSILLADE.—The funeral of T. M. Swain's children will take place from his residence this (Monday) afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WEAR.—The Provost Marshal transacted no business yesterday, for the simple reason he had none to transact.

THREE MEN.—Three men, whose names we could not learn, were sent from this city Saturday to the Dry Tortugas.

ROBERT OLIVER.—Robert Oliver was arrested yesterday for stealing a watch.

FOR THE UNION, CONSTITUTION, AND McCLELLAN.

RALLY! RALLY!

A grand old fashion basket meeting will be held at Camp Dick Robinson, Saturday, September 17th. The people of the country of Gerrard, Madison, Lincoln, Casey, Boyle, Mercer, Woodford and Jessamine desire to unite and prove their devotion to the Union, the Constitution, and McClellan, and their opposition to peculation, fraud and fanaticism, and have selected this day as appropriate and in harmony with the suggestion of the Chicago Convention.

The following speakers have been invited, and are expected to speak:

Gen. Geo. Robertson will preache, Hon. S.
Cox of Ohio, Col. Frank Wolford, Gen.
John B. Houston, Hon. J. F. Bell, Hon. Robt.
Malory, Hon. Aaron Hardin, Hon. B. J. Clay, Hon. W. H. Weddell, Hon. Hamilton
Price, Hon. Geo. W. Douglas, Gen. John M.
Harlan, Gen. T. J. Boyle, E. L. Van Winkle, Geo. Shanklin and others.

Stand will be erected for the speakers so that all can be heard. A band of music has been engaged, and all necessary preparations will be made to render the day a glorious one for the cause. Come old! come young! come one and all!

LIBERTY, NOW AND FOR EVER!

September 12th, 1864.

WOON'S THEATER—SECOND WEEK OF THE CARTER ZOUAVE TROUPE.—This just popular troupe will commence the second week of their engagement at Woon's Theater to-night, when a bill of unusual attractions will be presented. The performance of this troupe on Saturday night gives more than unusual satisfaction, and they were often greeted with rounds of applause by the large audience. The "French Dancing Master" was excellently performed, and J. C. Dusberry proved himself to be an actor of more than usual abilities.
The Zouaves will be in full style on the stage, and will be sure to give the audience a hearty laugh.
